

Nick Wright

Portfolio Site

A personal site that reflects the creative and professional works that have been done by Nick

The plans for the site are a personal portfolio website. The site will need multiple sections that include; 3D models, animation demos, web, and art, and contact information. The sites purpose to deliver interesting content an interesting way. Creating a theme that showcases all of my talents and can intertwine them at the same time will be a powerful asset and edge for my site.
